Sean Layne Keynote Speaker

John F. Kennedy Center workshop leader Sean Layne is the founder of Focus 5 Inc., a national arts education consulting company. He holds a BFA degree in acting and studied acting in London, England. Sean leads residencies for students K-8, presents workshops for teachers, and has designed training seminars for teaching artists nationwide for the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. He is also an Arts Coach for the Kennedy Center's Changing Education Through the Arts program.

For over a decade Sean acted, directed and designed sets for the Interact Story Theatre, a professional theatre company that served more than 4,000 schools, museums, libraries, and festivals around the world.

At this conference, Sean will lead sessions on the use of drama for classroom management and tableau. Tableau instruction will focus on social studies and literature integration.
